

Len Raymond Carlile

April 6, 1965 - July 8, 2019

Len Raymond Carlile, born in Salt Lake City on April 6, 1965, has now departed this world but has left it a better place for having graced it with his kind spirit and having brought happiness to all friends and family who ever knew and loved him. He died on Monday, July 8, 2019, in American Fork, Utah, at 54 years of age.

Born to Don R Carlile and Dulcie May (Blake) Carlile, two-year-old Len was taken into the Midvale, Utah, home of his aunt Theda A (Carlile) Johnson and her husband Jay O Johnson. They loved him and nurtured him, helping him develop the smile we all have admired and ever will cherish.

Challenged his entire life, Len's purity of spirit invited all who knew him not only to be better but to love better. He is and will continue always to be an inspiration to all who cared for him and knew him.

Everyone at the Utah State Developmental Center, who watched over Len through the years, did so with the compassion and love that he deserved as a child of God. They indeed were devoted servants to one of God's chosen sons. We as family are so very grateful to them for their loving care in his behalf. Len's life was enriched by their care for him. Thanks especially to Clarissa Keesler, Jed Cook, Lynn Hjorth, Gary Raulston, Jennifer Meek, Melissa Sprague, Laura Goodman, Tylar Elliott, Sara Lundell, Brenda Gordon, Gary Newman, Steve Butler, Heidi Lindsay, Aaron Lindsay, Greg Lindsay, Preslee Anderson, Wendy Lazarri, Kylia Johson, Ryann Slider, Ammacie Clegg, Ivana Santilan, Tiana Street, Kaitlyn Washburn, and Elaine Whitcome. “ Several years ago at the annual hill celebration it was 50s themed in raintree. I drove my convertible in the parade and len rode shotgun dressed as elvis. He laughed and waved to the crowd as we jammed to the music in my car. Such sweet memories of him now. I miss his sweet smile and laughter. He loved to tease back and forth. I always told him good morning handsome everyday, and he always gave me a big smile and laugh.

“ Len was always so cheerful and loved his music. He would start dancing in his chair the minute we walked into his room. His smile will be forever missed.
