Robert P. Baum, 70, Loving Husband, Dad, Grandpa, and Brother, peacefully returned to his Heavenly Father, Wednesday December 26, 2018 at his home in Hanna, with family by his side.

Bob was born on December 24, 1948, in the Provo Hospital to Ray J. Baum and Mary Valina Pace. He lived in Fruitland, Utah and attended school in Duchesne. He married DaVona Defa on June 23, 1969. They made their home in Hanna, Utah. He served in the Army from 1969-1971. During his training he went to Germany to play war games. He fought for our country in the Vietnam War. Together they raised four children. Bob and DaVona solemnized their marriage in the Provo Temple on June 23, 1993. They loved to travel to Yuma in the winter. Bob loved to hunt, fish, and cut timber - anything to spend time in the mountains with his family. He worked for the Chevron Pipeline from May 1975 to February 2006, as a Senior Mechanic. He was also a logger, farmer, welder, teacher, supervisor and all around Superman. He is a legend for his knowledge and ability to repair or build anything. He engineered and invented things that had never been done before. As a member of the LDS Church, he had many callings. He was honored to hold the Priesthood. The prayers and blessings he gave were very strong and heartfelt.

“ To the Baum Family
I worked with Bob for many years at Chevron. He was a smart, kind and funny man. He always helped with anything I needed and in the process made me laugh and feel at ease. I learned a lot from him and was fortunate to have known him. I wish for you to have some comfort in your time of loss.

“ Our hearts go out to Devona and children. Bob was a great friend, a true mentor and a person you could count on in good times and bad. He was the first one to bail into a situation and the last one to leave. Bob gave of himself unselfishly. The world is missing a great man, but heaven just received a true angel. We should all feel fortunate to have known and spent time with Bob. May God bless and watch over you Devona and family. Sincerely,
Marion, Judy, Colton Kupitz
